JACOB MORITZ,
General ManagerSEE THEM FAR FIRST.*A Sewing Machine Agent and the Idaho Elections.

To the Editor of THE HERALD:

The melancholy days have come, etc. The folks are hunting up their old clothes and last year's stove-pipes, and saying, "cuss words" about the author of "Beautiful Snow." The health of the people is good. The Co-op store was burglarized a night or two since, but not by an expert. Entering by a window, he left it open; some one passing saw this, and went to the door to learn the cause, when the burglar escaped through the open window, leaving his boots as a trophy. Suspicion points strongly to a traveler camped in town. A great many teams pass through daily for the Snake River country.

The land office closes here on the 10th inst., being removed to Elkhart. There are three good schools running here, three Sunday schools and four churches with returns not all in. The election passed off very quietly only 36 votes being cast. Of these 24 were for Hailey, and 12 for Dubois. The Democratic ticket is ahead for all officers. No Mormons offered their votes. Quite a number were challenged, among whom was Judge Morgan. All took the oath (though some of them looked like a boy after taking his first chew of tobacco), except one, a sewing machine agent who said he was too much an American to swallow a test oath, and he'd see them all in h-ll first. He didn't vote. I think the rail roads have got about to the end of their rope. A few local scrub ex-officials and the Salt Lake Tribune fixed Dubois here. More from Blackfoot.

OFF-HAND.

OXFORD, IDAHO, November 3.

AMUSEMENTS.*THEATRE TO-NIGHT.—The town is being roughly canvassed by the G. A. R. people and as everybody one meets on the street has from one to half a dozen tickets for to-night, there is no doubt but that a full house will assemble to witness the event. There will be a number of society people make their debut. Besides Miss Millie Cook, Mr. Reeve of the Union-Pacific office, John M. Young, James J. Jennings, of the Continental, and the professional, Lansing and Taylor, are in the cast of Nevada.CONCERT AND BALL.—The Hebrew Benevolent and Relief Societies give their annual concert and ball in the Theatre next Thursday evening. These affairs are always of a very recherche order, and there is every indication that the old success will be duplicated this year. Tickets, including supper, are placed at $5.SOL SMITH RUSSELL.—Fred Berger, of the well-known family of that name, bobbed up serenely yesterday as the advance agent of the inimitable Sol Smith Russell, who comes to us next week. Our amusement-loving citizens will be glad to hear of the coming of this distinguished theatrical "star." As a comedian Sol Smith Russell stands among the heads of his profession. His facial play and character illusions are marvellous, and his humor is as clearly an ebullition of nature as a crystal prism which bubbles up and runs over because it can't help it.

Mr. Russell will appear in his new comedy, entitled "Pa," for which an especially strong supporting company has been organized, which contains several well known artists. The new comedy is said to be one of the funniest plays on the American stage. A crowded house will doubtless welcome Sol Smith Russell at the Salt Lake Theatre, next Tuesday evening. The engagement is for two nights and Wednesday matinee.

It should be used by those using it have grown hair. It never fails to stop the hair from falling. Through sickness and fevers the hair sometimes falls off in a short time, and although the person may have remained bald for years, if you use Benton's Hair Grower according to directions you are sure of a growth of hair. In hundreds of cases we have produced a good growth of hair on those who have been bald and glazed for years, we have fully substantiated the following facts:

We grow Hair in 80 cases out of 100, no matter how long bald. Unlike other preparations, it contains no sugar of lead, or vegetable or mineral poisons. It is a specific for falling hair, dandruff, and itching of the scalp. The Hair Grower is a hair food, and its composition is almost exactly like the oil which supplies the hair with its vitality.

Funeral services will be held in the Twelfth Ward Assembly Rooms, to-day, November 5th, at 2 p. m. Friends of the family are respectfully invited.AINI.—November 4th, at 61 E. First North Street, after a short but severe illness, borne with Christian fortitude, John Airo, Sen., born at Kilmarnock, Ayrshire, March 4th, 1806.

He was baptized into the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, in the year 1857, by the late Apostle Samuel Richards, and was a faithful member of the church until the day of his death. He presided over the Kilmarnock branch of the church in Scotland for 25 years, and came to Utah in 1875, and has been at the Temple gate office almost ever since. He was a loving husband and father, and leaves a large family to mourn his loss. He lived and died a faithful Saint, and died in the hope of a glorious resurrection. The funeral will take place from the Eighteenth Ward Chapel, Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. All friends are invited to attend.—Com.
